

CANADA: GLOBAL TALENT STREAM PROCESS MAP

STEP 1: INITIATION

Client initiates the case with FGI. FGI assesses NOC and advises if eligible for the Global Talent Stream

STEP 2: PREPARATION OF APPLICATION

Upon receiving required information from the Client, FGI will prepare the GTS submission package.

Processing time: 5 business days

STEP 3: SUBMISSION OF GTS APPLICATION

Upon receipt of the signed documentation, FGI will submit the GTS application via email. Typically, within the first week, the Client will receive a call from ESDC for the 1000 CAD fee payment. Once the payment is made, the Client and ESDC officer will schedule a date to discuss the application.

Processing time: Approx. 1 week

STEP 4: ESDC DISCUSSION CALL

ESDC will call the client to discuss the application and work on the LMBP.

Processing time: 2 weeks

STEP 5: GTS APPROVAL

Once the GTS application is approved, the applicant can then apply for the work permit application – and must do so within 6 months.
