

TEMPORARY WORK PERMIT (LOCAL HIRE UNDER 90 DAYS) PROCESS MAP

STEP 7: REGISTRATION WITH FOREIGN POLICE

Within three days of entry, foreign nationals must register their address and travel dates with the foreign police. If staying in a hotel or other commercial accommodation facility this will be arranged through them.
Processing time: 1 day

STEP 6: REGISTRATION WITH LABOUR OFFICE

All applicants must be registered with the labour office. The notification must state the start date of the work in the Czech Republic and should be done prior to or on the first day of work. Proof of registration should be kept by the host entity. The applicant can begin working after this step.
Processing time: 1 day

STEP 5: ENTRY TO CZECH REPUBLIC

Once the passport is endorsed with the visa, the applicant may enter the Czech Republic. The visa will be stamped at the port of entry.

STEP 1: INITIATION

Client initiates the case with FGI. FGI assesses work permit category and sends document checklist to the client. Client sends the documents listed on the checklist to FGI.

STEP 2: LABOUR MARKET SEARCH

A labour market search to prove that it is not possible to find a resident worker (i.e. resident in the Czech Republic or the wider EU/EEA) must be conducted. This process is initiated by announcing the vacant position to the labour office.
Processing time: 6 weeks

STEP 3: WORK PERMIT APPLICATION

FGI submits the application to the central labour office for the work permit.
Processing time: 1-2 months

STEP 4: VISA TYPE C APPLICATION

Once the work permit has been issued, the principal applicant can apply for a Schengen C visa at the Czech diplomatic post in their country of residence or nationality.
Processing time: 1-3 weeks
