

POSITIVE LIST & PAY LIMIT SCHEME PROCESS MAP

STEP 8: ISSUANCE OF RESIDENCE CARD

The final work and residence permit card for the applicant and residence cards for accompanying family will be delivered to the Danish address given in the work and residence permit application via post.
Processing time: 1 month

STEP 7: LOCAL REGISTRATION

All applicants must register their legal presence in Denmark and address with the local registration office to activate their CPR number (Central Person Register number). or assignments of less than 3 months, a CPR number will not be issued, but a tax number will be necessary which should be applied for at the local tax centre.

STEP 6: POSTED WORKER NOTIFICATION

If on foreign contract and contracted to perform services in Denmark the sending company and any individual assignments should be registered with the Register for Foreign Service Providers (RUT) online on or before the first day of assignment.

STEP 5: ENTRY TO DENMARK

Once the long stay visa has been issued, the applicant (and any accompanying family members) may enter Denmark. The applicant can begin working immediately.

STEP 1: INITIATION

Client initiates the case with FGI and submits a completed questionnaire. FGI determines the category and send the appropriate document checklist.

STEP 2: WORK & RESIDENCE PERMIT APPLICATION

Upon receiving all the documents, FGI submits the application to the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (Styrelsen for International Rekruttering og Integration - SIRI).
Processing time: 3-5 weeks

STEP 3: BIOMETRIC DATA SUBMISSION

Applicants aged over 18 must submit biometric data within 14 days of the work and residence permit application.

STEP 4: LONG STAY VISA APPLICATION

Applicants who require a visa to enter Denmark must apply at the Danish consulate in the country of residence or nationality, unless already holding a valid Schengen visa.
Processing time: 1-3 weeks